

Meeting called to order at 11:11 AM:

Moment of silence for recently passed members and all members in the military.

Minutes of the April RFA meeting were read and approved.

Treasurers report was given and approved. Balance in checking account is $24,492.25.

Treasurer discussed the transfer of the RFA's current CD to another CD that provided a slightly higher interest rate.

A motion was made and approved to transfer the funds to the new higher return rate CD at the appropriate time.

President O'Neil reported that he had presented on behalf of the RFA, a Lazy Boy reclining chair for his many years of service to the RFA as Secretary-Treasurer.

This was in lieu of giving him a plaque.

President O'Neil contacted the Fire Chiefs office about attending our May meeting. He was unable to attend the May meeting due to a previous scheduled event. He would try to attend the June meeting.

President O'Neil asked that if members have any changes or updates to contact Joe Healy with all new information.

He also informed the membership that John Lockwood has been appointed as the new chairman of the Audit Committee.

The issue of Service Longevity Compensation has been put on hold until the current reduced annuity issue has been resolved.

New members: Terry L. King retired 2-20-16 from E-17.

President read the current sick member list.

Annuity Committee: Bill Mould reported on the issue of the (1) Treasury trying to recoup moneys owed by 12 members (2) the issue of the Form 1099C that some members have received (3) the fact that some members have received a third letter from the U.S. Treasury requesting another extension to review their case.

L-36 President Ed Smith gave a brief report on political avenues being addressed with Congressman Hoyer and Chavez. Also a letter to IAFF President Schateberger asking for his direct involvement.

Vinnie Austin reported that the Honor Guard had attended 3 funerals in the past month.

Joe Healy reported current RFA membership is 900. Broken down as follows: Life members 19; Current paid 476; Not paid 405.

John Lockwood gave progress report on the steps to be taken to complete our audit.

Meeting adjourned 12:13 PM